

We're Joining Voices – Will You Join Us?

Joining Voices is a growing network of early childhood advocates teaming up with Prince George's Child Resource Center. These advocates all work in early care and education programs – so they're experts in what's going on in our community! YOU are the experts. All early childhood educators – family child care providers, child care center directors and staff - in our county are welcome to participate. We need YOUR voice to help get our message out.
